Dear parent / Guardian,

RE: END OF TERM CIRCULAR 2021

On behalf of the directors, administration and the entire fraternity of Ivory International School, allow me deliver warm greetings and thank you for the invaluable support and cooperation you have portrayed in the term. We have successfully come to the end. May the lord's name be glorified.

Today Friday 21st May 2021, we have closed the term and broken up for holidays after covering successfully the programmed activities.

Academics

The committed staff has conducted actual teaching as required. Three sets of examinations have been done i.e. Mid-term, end of term external and internal examination. Many of our pupils have improved in performance. However, we still have learners who have not performed to the expectation. Parents are requested to critically observe the children's performance and encourage them accordingly.

School fees

We are humbled to appreciate you dear parents for the prompt payment. You are kindly requested to present fully paid bank slip on the first day of the term.

Note: All fees must be paid in the bank

 - 01896900027 (Bank of Africa Strictly for Uniform and Transport fees)

School Canteen

For convenience, the school introduced a school canteen. Here, parents are required to purchase all pupils' general personal requirements strictly from the canteen.

Snacks

There is an option to the parent either to carry your own snacks or pay in the school canteen so that the canteen can offer snacks to your child every evening.

For parents who wish to carry their own snacks the following are required;

Ivory International School, The Future Begins Here

i) Drinks

3 cartons of splash / flavoured milk (¼ litre)

ii) Eats

Roasted ground nuts, bagiya, cookies, biscuits, hard corns, gorillos, kick snacks, daddies and crisps. However always check on the expiry dates before buying.

Health

We registered some few cases of sickness including flue and cough, ulcers etc. Parents are reminded to always pay the medical fee on the reporting day for medical checkup.

Discipline

Generally our learners have been well behaved throughout the term. The few ordinary cases on indiscipline were handled accordingly. Dear parent, you are requested to give particular attention and observation to children's discipline and continue guiding them.

Visiting Hours

Visitors are allowed in school during the following hours.

Monday – Friday 8:00am – 5:00pm

Saturday 9:00am – 2:00pm

Sunday No visitors are allowed unless on any official school function.

Interviews for New Entrants

The school is conducting interviews and admission of new entrants.

The requirements include;

- i) Previous report card
- ii) Birth certificate
- iii) 2 passport size photographs (pupil and parents) each
- iv) Photocopy of parent's National IDs.
- v) Interview and admission fee is 70,000/=

Conclusion

We wish you the best in all your endeavors during the holidays. Our offices will always be open. Feel free to come around in case of any need.

Thank you for choosing Ivory International School.

Yours in Service,

MARGARET NABULYA
DEPUTY HEAD TEACHER
